BODY OF HAROLD SMITH
ARRIVES FROM OVERSEAS

The body of Harold Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Smir of this city, arrived from overseas, Saturday. It was taken in charge of by the Liberal Undertaking company until Monday, when the American Legion Post had charge of the burial services, which were held at the Baptist church, the Rev. Wolfe, preaching a wonderfully comforting sermon to the bereaved family and friends of the deceased.

Harold Smith enlisted last spring into the service and died shortly after arriving overseas from sickness. He had made several attempts to enlist for the war service, but being under age, was unable to be received. Just as soon as he was of age he again offered his services, and was immediately accepted and sent to France.

C. F. STEPHENSON

Cyrus Franklin Stephenson, second oldest son of Elan H. and Susan E. Stephenson, was born near Kaufman, Texas, Oct. 4, 1874, died in the July 14, 1920, aged 45 yrs., 9 mo., and 19 days

He spent most of his life in Texas and Oklahoma, coming to this community in 1904, where they have since lived. He was married to Jessie Churchwell, in 1907, with whom he happily lived until his call into the land eternal. Six children were born of this happy union, Clara May, Jule, Richard, Leta, Marjorie and Rose. The youngest 14 months and the oldest 11 years of age.

While yet a boy the care of his father's orphaned family was thrown upon his young shoulders, and well did he perform this task, depriving himself that his brothers might complete their education and have every opportunity of advancement. However, his experiences and observations in life gave him a practical education, this coupled with practical education, this coupled with his natural keen mind and good judgment made him successful in all his undertakings.

In the communities where he has lived, he is highly respected and esteemed for his many sterling qualities of manhood. He was ever a man of honor, fair dealing, frankness and a lover of righteousness. As a workman, in any line, he was noted for his boundless energy, usually doing the work of two men.

He met his late illness and death with the calmness and fearlessness that has dominated his whole life, quietly and calmly making all arrangements incident to such occasion. Toward religion he was ever reverent and respectful. He wished all his friends to know that he was ready to go and not afraid to die.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jessie Stephenson of Lorenz, Okla., six children, two brothers, Robert of Houston, Tex., Zach T. of Paris, Texas, many other relatives and a large circle of friends and neighbors, who join the sorrowing family in their bereavement.

Miss Helen Kyte returned to Elkhart the last of the week after visiting relatives and friends in the city.

Mrs. Phoebe Zimmerman, Miss Mary Zimmerman and Mrs. J. W. Hahn and three children came in the last of the week for a visit with W. L. and Warren Zimmerman and the Bert Long families. Mrs. Hahn and children will accompany Longs to Colorado next week.

Fannie Harrel of Pratt was in Liberal the last of the week looking after business matters.

Mrs. E. J. Longwell left Friday for Greensburg to see her father who is ill.

The Misses Mabel Grainger and Zula Weidensaul entertained at a dish shower for Mrs. Walter Smith, at the Granger home last Wednesday evening.
